

Two State Security

Advocating for the two-state solution must keep issues of security at the forefront.

001.

SPECIFIC POLICY PROPOSALS

Supporting conditions for a future negotiated agreement:

Featuring proposals from retired Israeli security officials and American experts, many of the suggested proposals could be implemented today without moving a single Israeli civilian or soldier.

Answering the Arab Peace Initiative  Creating Palestinian Contiguity

002.

HISTORICAL & CONTEMPORARY MAPS

Analyzing past land swap offers to decipher what is possible:

Dozens of interactive maps developed by IPF's partner organization, the Economic Cooperation Foundation (ECF), allow you to navigate the realities on the ground and from the negotiating room.

Camp David II - Israeli Proposal (2000)  West Bank Settlements By Population

003.

MEET THE COMMANDERS

Strengthening Israeli voices to advance peace and security:

The Commanders for Israel's Security (CIS), an unprecedented and impressive alliance of 280 retired IDF generals and their leadership equivalents from the Mossad, Shin Bet, and police forces, believe in the vitality of the two-state solution.

Shabtai Shavit, Former Mossad Director  Avi Mizrahi, Former Head of Central Command